

Ultrasound

Under supervision from the Department Director, and/or Lead Ultrasound Technologist, performs Ultrasound procedures at a technical level not requiring constant supervision. Able to perform a variety of procedures that require independent judgment, and initiative in the application on non-ionizing high frequency ultrasonic waves to humans for diagnosis of disease. Uses independent judgment, with ingenuity, and initiative to apply prescribed skills in designated areas or procedures as required. In addition to receiving client feedback from DiagnosTempS, performance evaluations will be performed on a biannual basis.

Qualifications

- High School Diploma
- Graduate of an accredited school of Ultrasound
- ARDMS registry preferred
- Minimum one year experience.
- CPR certified

Technologist

DiagnosTempS

Date

Date